

Electronics Association Report 2023-2024

The first program conducted by electronics association for the academic year 2023-2024 was exhibition named 'electronica' at electronics lab on 20/08/23. Somany still models & working models created by students made the event success. This helps students to develop their extracurricular skills.

The inauguration of association was conducted on 18/12/23 at Seminar Hall. Inauguration of electronics, cs & commerce association were conducted. It was a nice experience to students. Second & third year students were the audience.

LED star making workshop was conducted on 12/12/23 at Electronics Lab. First year & second year electronics students were the participants. Electronics association members coordinated this program . This helps students to develop skills in making LED stars

Tharang precursor events were conducted on 25/01/24 at Seminar hall, Library, Electronics lab, Computer lab. Techfest named 'techgenics 2k24' was conducted. Workshop on Arduino programming & programming competition were conducted in association with electronics association. Students got an exposure to current trends in the technical & professional skills

Sd/-

Mintu E M

Assistant Professor in Electronics

Association in-charge